13 November 2012, Sydney, Australia – The Board of 3Q Holdings Limited (ASX: TQH) announced today that its Island Pacific Mobile retail point-of-sale (POS) solution, operating on the Ingenico iSMP portable EFTPOS docking cradle, has been accredited as an authorised payment solution.

Retail business customers of Island Pacific will be able to use the Ingenico iSMP docking cradle equipped with Island Pacific's Mobile software to conduct mobile, secure EFTPOS transactions using an Apple iPhone or iPod Touch.

“The challenge for retailers in today's tough sales environment is to keep customers engaged and satisfied by being able to facilitate their requirements at any time and from anywhere in the store. This latest 3Q and Ingenico solution turns a mobile phone into a secure cash register enabling sales transactions to be conducted anywhere on the shop floor, removing the need or reliance on a physical shop counter,” said Shaun Rosen, 3Q Chairman.

To facilitate multiple forms of payment, the Ingenico iSMP is equipped with a barcode scanner, cardswipe, Chip and PIN and near field communications (NFC) capabilities. Transaction communication with the bank is carried out using the iPhone's own 3G connection, or a WiFi network connection for an iPod Touch.

In addition to conducting secure sales the Island Pacific Mobile solution provides retailers with a complete mobile retail solution, allowing the Ingenico iSMP to be used by retailers for stocktaking, transfers and as a marketing database. This revolutionary wireless solution could well see retailers replacing their traditional counter top Point of Sale and EFTPOS devices, reclaiming retail floor space for merchandise and saving costs on technology.

The 3Q and Ingenico mobile solution will be piloted by a small number of customers before being made available for wider release.

3Q continues to develop and deploy high value and innovative software solutions through Island Pacific and AdvanceRetail Technologies. This provides retailers with the opportunity to manage their operations productively and efficiently as the retail landscape continues to evolve.
